

Read pages 76-83

1. Remove snow and ice from your vehicle's _____, _____, and _____ before driving.
 - Make sure that your windshield wiper fluid contains _____.
 - Get the feel of the road: try your _____ while driving _____ to test the road surface.
 - _____ your speed to road condition.
 - Avoid using _____ control on slippery roads.

2. If your vehicle becomes stuck on ice or snow, try to free your vehicle by "_____ " it back and forth.

3. When roads are covered with snow or ice, watch for the flashing _____, _____, and _____ lights of snowplows.

4. For safety, it is important to assemble a winter survival kit to keep in any vehicle you drive. Some recommended items include:
List 5 of the items from the list:
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____

5. If you become stranded while traveling in cold weather, _____ with your vehicle.

6. Stay calm, wait for help to arrive, and take as many of the following steps as possible:

- Turn on your _____ lights.
- Attach a _____ flag to your radio antenna.
- Set out _____ and _____, if possible.
- If clothing, blankets and other survival supplies are stored in _____, bring them _____ the vehicle.
- Keep the _____ clear of snow and debris.
- Run the engine and _____ until the vehicle is reasonably warm, and then turn it off. Repeat this process as long as _____ is available, or until you are rescued. Running the engine for approximately _____ each hour, in order to _____ the battery and warm the interior, is recommended.
- Even in extremely cold, leave at least one window partially _____ to let in fresh air. Occupants of an _____ vehicle can suffer _____ poisoning if ventilation is not adequate.
- At least _____ person in the vehicle should remain _____ at all times.

7. Maintaining Alertness and Concentration

The following suggestions may help, but will have no lasting effect:

- Stop as often as you need to – at least once every _____ miles or every _____ hours.
- If you have passengers, _____ in order to stay alert.
- If you are alone, _____ to the radio or _____ aloud.
- When the weather permits, _____ a window _____ to increase fresh airflow. Do not rely on “_____” drugs.
- If none of this works, _____ for the day or _____ far from the road and rest.

8. When you are driving on a slippery road, _____ down and maintain a _____ distance from the vehicle in front of you.

9. A vehicle skid occurs when _____ lose their _____ on the road surface.

10. If you have _____ - _____ brakes, do not _____ them as you would regular breaks.

11. If you encounter thunderstorms or fog, _____ speed, use _____ caution, and be prepared to stop.
12. Your headlights, by law, must be used at times when you cannot see more than _____ feet ahead and when it is _____, _____, _____ or hailing.
13. At higher speeds, water can collect under tires and _____ them off the surface of the road – this is called “_____.”
14. In heavy rain, standard cars may begin to hydroplane at _____ mph.
15. It is not _____ to coast down steep hills with your transmission in _____.
16. A “blowout” is a burst tire that can throw your vehicle out of control. Before a blowout occurs, you may hear a _____ sound or notice the steering wheel _____ to the right or left.
17. If you experience a blowout, _____ the steering wheel tightly, steer _____ ahead, and slowly ease your foot off the accelerator.
18. If the front wheels of your vehicle do not respond when you turn the steering wheel, _____ up on the accelerator. Do not _____ unless it is necessary to avoid a crash.
19. A brake pedal that sinks _____ when pressure is applied is one sign that your vehicle’s brakes may be failing.
20. If your brake pedal _____ sinks all the way to the floor, try _____ the pedal to build _____. If this does not work, slowly apply your _____/_____ brake.

21. Remember: the emergency/parking brake engages only the _____ brakes.
22. If your wheels _____ onto the shoulder of the road, do not try to _____ back onto the pavement.
23. Deer are most active in the _____ to _____ hours, so you should be especially alert while driving during those times. Scan the sides of the road at night to watch for the reflection of your vehicle headlights in the eyes of deer. If you see such a reflection on the side of the road, _____ . Blow the horn and be ready to stop.
24. If a vehicle is traveling toward you in your lane, move to the _____. Do _____ use the _____ lane to avoid the vehicle.
25. If the driver _____ the speed of oncoming traffic or is unable, for another reason, to complete the _____, you and the other drivers are all in danger.
26. If a crash seems probable, and the _____ shoulder is _____ enough for your vehicle, quickly move to the right and allow the passing vehicle to move into your lane.
27. If your vehicle becomes _____ on railroad tracks, and a train is _____, leave the vehicle. Walk quick in a _____ degree angle away from the tracks in the _____ from which the train is approaching.
28. Floodwaters can be found on _____, _____, and _____ areas.
29. They can occur within a few minutes or hours of excessive rainfall.

- Do not _____ through flooded areas. If you see a flooded _____ ahead, turn _____ and find another _____ to get to your destination.
 - Be cautious, especially at _____, when the _____ is limited.
 - Remember, _____ inches of water will reach the _____ of most passenger cars, causing _____ of control or possible stalling.
 - _____ feet of moving water can carry away most vehicles including _____ utility vehicles and _____ trucks.
 - Even if the water appears _____ enough to cross, do not _____ to cross a flooded road. Water can hide _____, or worse, floodwaters can _____ roadways by washing away the _____ road surface.
 - If there is no other route, proceed to _____ ground and wait for the waters to subside.
30. Most vehicles will float on the surface of water from _____ to _____ seconds.
31. The _____ of the engine will cause the _____ end of the car to sink first.
32. Do not use _____ to put out the fire – this will actually _____ the blaze.
33. Most vehicles have dashboard _____ or _____ that indicate the engine temperature.
34. When your engine becomes hot, turn off any unnecessary vehicle equipment, such as _____ conditioning.
35. If your headlights suddenly go out, try your _____ lights, _____ warning lights, or _____ signals – one of them may work and give you enough light to guide you off the road.

36. If your windshield wipers suddenly _____ in blinding rain or snow, _____ and activate your hazard warning lights.
37. If the hood of your vehicle suddenly opens, _____ your view, you may be able to see through the _____ between the hood and dashboard.
38. If your gas pedal _____, you may be able to free it by _____ your toe under the pedal and raising it. If this does not work, apply the _____ and shift into _____, this will disengage the engine.
39. Early symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning include sudden _____, _____, _____, and _____.
40. When temperatures are cold, carbon monoxide can get trapped inside the garage even when the garage door is open completely. Carbon monoxide can seep into an attached house. Carbon monoxide can render a person unconscious within a few minutes.

To reduce the risk of carbon monoxide poisoning and possibly death:

- Avoid _____ a vehicle in a garage. A safer place to warm up a vehicle is in the driveway.
- Avoid sitting in a vehicle with the engine _____.
- Do not drive with all windows _____ closed.
- Avoid idling a vehicle when _____ in the snow or the mud.
- Make sure your vehicle's _____ system does not leak and is not _____.
- Periodically allow _____ air into the vehicle by _____ the windows.